

CRISP ARCHITECTS TRANSFORMATIONS

This two family home did not begin to meet the needs of its new owners. We were asked to redesign the interior and change all of the exterior doors and windows. Now it works as a family retreat.

TWO FAMILY HOME CHANGED TO WEEKEND COTTAGE

Garages can be made into family spaces quite easily. In most cases we are starting with open spaces which are often located next to kitchens. For this reason a garage conversion can be the most cost effective new space in a home.

GARAGE RENOVATED INTO LIVING ROOM

The new owners of this historic home wanted to gain space by enclosing the existing porch while renovating the master bedroom suite. We accomplished both while respecting the original house form
